Chamber Business Expo is October 4th

Shawnee, KS----- The Shawnee Chamber of Commerce will host the Shawnee Business Expo – “Partnering with Business to Showcase our Community”, on Thursday, October 4, 2007 at the Shawnee Civic Centre, 13817 Johnson Drive, Shawnee. More than 68 Shawnee Chamber member businesses will be exhibiting from 2:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. The event is free and open to the public.

The Expo will include a variety of businesses from the Shawnee Chamber. The City of Shawnee Police and Fire Departments and the Parks and Recreation will also be exhibiting and will be offering material and handouts on fire protection, ident-a-kid®, and identity theft as well as many additional displays. Patches the Fire Dog will be in attendance.

This year will also include a senior high school art exhibit from students at Shawnee Mission Northwest High School and Mill Valley High School. These senior art students will be displaying their art work for the community to enjoy. Local artist, Charles Goslin will assist in judging their work. The winner will receive a scholarship award provided by Kansas City Power and Light

The Expo is co-sponsored by the following businesses – Bayer HealthCare, LLC, Brotherhood Bank and Trust, Deffenbaugh Industries, Millcreek Home Loans and The Shawnee Dispatch.
